- 18.—Royal Military Asylum—information concerning.

 20.—Sick Reports on Soldiers.
 21.—Recruiting—filling up attestations.

G.O. 14.—Discharges.

(Specially issued, 2nd February, 1876.)

In every case in which a soldier has been permitted to reckon former service towards good conduct pay and pension, a detailed statement of such service is to accompany his discharge documents, when transmitted for confirmation.

G.O. 15.—Guards' Regulations.

The accompanying extracts (Appendix A. [not printed in Army List]) from the "Orders and Regulations of the Brigade of Guards," which have received Her Majesty's approval, are published for general information and guidance, and for insertion, eventually, in the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army."

G.O. 16.—Musketry Instruction.

I. With a view of improving the system of musketry training in the Army, and of developing the shooting powers of the soldier with the Martini-Henry rifle, the following alterations (Appendix C. [not printed in Army List]) in the course hitherto prescribed for the drilled soldier and recruit have been approved.

II. The number of targets to be fired at by the several classes in individual practice, the size of the bull's eye and centre, which are to be circular in form (vide diagrams in Appendix), the distances to be fired at, the position and number of rounds at a distance, and the number of points to be obtained to pass from one class to another, and to qualify as a marksman, are to be as follows :—

DRILLED SOLDIERS.

Periods and Distances in each.	Position.	Numbers of rounds at each distance.	Points to be obtained in each class with the
			Martini-Henry.	Snider.
1st Period ... { 200 300	yards Standing Kneeling	10 10	} 40	40
2nd Period ... { 500 600	Any	10 10
3rd Period, 1st Class ... { 700 800	Any	10 10	} 40	25

* To qualify as Marksmen.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

III. The targets for volley and independent firing will remain as at present.

IV. The target for skirmishing will be two feet high and six feet broad, with a black mark in the centre two feet square (vide Diagram).

V. The targets to be fired at by the recruit will be the same as for the drilled soldier; but the number of rounds at a distance, the distances to be fired at, and the number of points to be obtained in each class, will remain as at present laid down for each rifle.

VI. Recruits will not in future perform position drill in "marching order" or with "fixed bayonets."

VII. The number of points fixed as the value of the hits in each class, and in the volley, independent and skirmishing practices will remain as at present.

VIII. Ricochet butts are to be abolished. A "ricochet" can be distinguished in the marker's butt by the sound it makes when passing through the air, and by the mark made on the target. The "marker" will therefore, in future, be held responsible that all ricochets are signalled in the usual way with the red or "danger" flag.

IX. The direction of misses may be shown by special signal instructions for which will shortly be published, and printed in a separate sheet for insertion in the "Rifle Exercises and Musketry Instruction"; and commanding officers will be held responsible that these instructions are strictly adhered to, more especially as to the marker not leaving his butt for this purpose.

X. The use of dummy targets, whereon to indicate the exact position of the hits on the target is also sanctioned. The instructions in connection therewith are embodied in those for signalling misses.

XI. In consequence of the flat trajectory of the Martini-Henry rifle, judging distance practice for the drilled soldier will commence at 200 yards, and the following changes in the practice will take place:—

Period.	Distance.	No. of answers in a period.	Value of answer.	Points to be obtained to pass into a higher class.
1st Period, 3rd Class	Between 200 & 500 yds.	8	Within 15 yds., 2 points, within 30 yds., 1 point	10
2nd Period, 2nd Class	Between 505 & 900 yds.	8	Within 30 yds., 2 points, within 40 yds., 1 point	10
3rd Period, 1st Class	Between 200 & 900 yds.	8	Four distances to be given under and four over 500 yds.

XII. No classification will take place until the end of the 2nd period.

XIII. The order of merit will be determined by the highest aggregate scores obtained in the first, second and third classes.

XIV. With a view to induce as much interest as possible being taken in this essential part of a soldier's training, prizes will in future be issued for judging distance practice. The amount granted for good shooting rewards will be separated into distinct prizes for target and judging distance practice, and a judging distance qualification will no longer be required in order to obtain a prize for good shooting.

XV. In order that officers may be enabled to give their undivided attention to judging distance practice, and thus ensure its being conducted with fairness to all concerned, they will not, in future, be required to execute this practice with their companies, but at such other time during the annual course as the commanding officer may direct.

XVI. These alterations will take effect from the commencement of the annual course for 1876—7, and the "Rifle Exercises and Musketry Instruction" will be altered in accordance therewith.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

G.O. 17.—Musketry Instruction.

I. Attention having been called to numerous instances of detached and employed men not having been exercised in the current year's course of musketry instruction, it is hereby directed that all men, regimental staff excepted, shall be trained annually, and commanding officers will be held responsible that this is strictly adhered to. No excuse will be accepted in any case where men who, by regulation, are required to go through the annual course, have not done so.

II. Arrangements must be made so that men on detachment may be exercised with the regiment at the nearest station, or be called in to head quarters for the musketry course.

G.O. 18.—Royal Military Asylum.

I. The following information regarding the Royal Military Asylum (or Duke of York's School), which there is reason to believe is not sufficiently well known to the Army, is published for general information, and commanding officers of regiments and brigades, on receipt of this order, will be good enough to cause the substance of it to be published in their regimental or brigade orders.

II. The Royal Military Asylum was founded in 1804 by H.R.H. the late Duke of York, for the free education of soldiers' orphans.

III. The benefits of the institution are open to the sons of non-commissioned officers and men who have deserved well of their country, for long, faithful, or gallant service, or who have died in the performance of their duty, or have been discharged from the Army, from any cause not affecting their character.

IV. Candidates for admission must be not less than 10, and not more than 12 years of age, at the time the application is made on their behalf, and free from any mental defect or infirmity.

V. In registering applications for admission, the cases are classified as follows:—

Class A.—Boys who have lost both parents.

" B.—Boys who have lost their father.

" B2.—Boys whose father is alive, but absent on foreign service.

" C.—Boys who have lost their mother.

VI. The merit of the father, in respect to character and service, is always an important consideration in weighing the claims of the candidate.

G.O. 19.—Documents of Non-Effectives.

Soldiers' ledger sheets are not to be destroyed until twelve months after the men become non-effective.

G.O. 20.—Sick Reports on Soldiers.

With reference to G.O. 14 of 1874, the sick reports on soldiers sent to station hospitals, are to be invariably sent with them, in duplicate. Particular care should be taken to ensure accuracy in filling in all the particulars required by the prescribed form.

G.O. 21.—Recruiting.

I. Numerous irregularities having lately taken place in filling up the forms of attestations of recruits, the attention of officers commanding sub-districts and corps is called to the necessity of greater care being in future observed in completing these important documents, accurately and fully.

II. The answers to the questions on the first page of the form should be carefully filled in, and any alteration, addition, or erasure that may subsequently be found necessary, must always be initialed by the attesting magistrate.

III. The description of the recruit on the second page should also be minutely noted, any distinctive mark being accurately entered; should none, however, exist, the space after the words "any distinctive mark" should not be left blank, but the word "none" is to be inserted.

IV. Care must also be taken that the proper form of attestation, prescribed in G.O. 58, of 1874, is used, in each case, for the different periods of service which are now authorized for the several branches of the Army.

By command,

RICHARD AIREY, Adj. Gen.

Cl. 45.—Royal Warrant—Allowance in lieu of Lodging, Fuel and Light to Non-Commissioned Officers.

VICTORIA R.

Whereas it has been represented to us that it is expedient to increase the combined allowance in lieu of lodging, fuel and light, heretofore granted at home stations to the non-commissioned officers of our army, and its departments, included in Classes I. and II. of our Warrant of 26th November, 1875.

Our will and pleasure is, that from the 1st April, 1876, the combined rates of lodging, fuel and light allowance, to be drawn by non-commissioned officers serving in the United Kingdom, when accommodation cannot be provided for them in barracks, shall be as follows:—

A non-commissioned officer on the married roll shall continue to receive lodging, fuel and light allowance for the benefit of his wife and family, when he may be in hospital or temporarily separated from his family on service, provided no married soldier's quarters become available for their use.

Given at our Court at Windsor, this 16th day of March, 1876, in the 39th year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's command,
GATHORNE HARDY.

Cl. 47.—Departmental Pay—Army Service Corps.

1. The following will in future be the proportions of the number of non-commissioned officers and men of the Army Service Corps to be placed upon the several rates of departmental pay, and these proportions will be calculated on the establishment of the corps under the rank of staff serjeant, instead of on the "total strength," as heretofore:—

1st rate	1 per cent.
2nd "	14½ "
3rd "	19½ "
4th "	28 "
5th "	37 "

2. Paragraph 12 of the Secretary of State's Instructions on the Royal Warrant of the 11th April, 1870 (Clause 49, Army Circulars, 1870), will be amended accordingly.

COMMISSARIAT SERVICES.Cl. 48.—Stoppages (Clean Linen) from Soldiers in Hospital.

1. The expense of cleaning the soiled linen or clothing of soldiers admitted into hospital will no longer be charged against the regiment, or stopped from the soldier's pay, but will, from the 1st April, 1876, be borne by the public.

2. Article 27 of the Regulations and Instructions for the Officers of the Purveyor's Department (1861) will be amended accordingly.

Cl. 49.—Ration Allowances to Families of Married Soldiers.

The following paragraphs will be substituted for paragraph 46 of the Regulations for Married Soldiers (Clause 53, Army Circulars, 1871) on the subject of the ration allowances granted at home stations to the families on the married roll when separated from the troops:

46. At home stations the following daily ration allowances will be issued to families on the married roll when the troops are compulsorily and necessarily separated from them on duty, and not in receipt of extra-duty, working or departmental pay, or of a special allowance, and not filling a beneficial appointment:

- To each wife, in lieu of a half ration ... 3d.
- To each child under 14 years of age, in lieu of a quarter ration ... 1½d.

Such ration allowances, however, will not be issued to the families of lunatic soldiers, or of soldiers in hospital, or of soldiers employed as officers' servants.

46a. A soldier holding a beneficial appointment, or so employed as to entitle him to extra-duty, working or departmental pay, or other special allowance, will, when separated from his family, be allowed the option of receiving such extra pay or the ration allowance for his family.

Cl. 50.—Railway and Passage Warrants.

From the 1st April, 1876, all railway and passage warrants heretofore made payable by the Paymaster of the Glasgow Recruiting District will be so drawn as to be payable by the Paymaster of the London Recruiting District.

ORDNANCE STORE SERVICES.Cl. 51.—Painting of Carriages and Wagons.

1. The carriages and wagons belonging to the batteries of the Royal Horse Artillery, of the Field Artillery, of troops of the Royal Engineer Train, and companies of the Army Service Corps will, when they require re-painting, according to regulation, be painted with a new description of paint, of a darker colour than that now in use.

2. The demand for the new description of paint will be made on the senior Ordnance Store Officer of the district in which the batteries, troops or companies are respectively serving, and the paint will be described as "dark lead colour ready for use."

3. The proportions will be the same as at present, except that in the case of the Royal Horse Artillery and Field Artillery, the proportions will be:—

- a. For a Battery, Royal Horse Artillery, 117 lbs.
- b. For a Field Battery, 178 lbs.

4. The details relating to the equipment of Royal Horse and Field Artillery Batteries, issued with Clause 146, Army Circulars, 1872, will be amended accordingly.

Cl. 52.—Valise Equipment.

The kit bag referred to in paragraph 20, Clause 154, Army Circulars, 1872, will not be supplied to the Royal Engineers.

CLOTHING.Cl. 53.—Metal Numerals and Badges.

1. Steps are being taken to arrange for the supply, under a departmental contract, of metal numerals and badges, to regiments and corps direct.

2. It is intended that this contract shall come into force on the 1st April, 1877, but before that date further instructions on the subject will be promulgated.

3. Commanding officers will therefore be careful not to make provision under Clause 156, Army Circulars, 1872, and Clause 118, Army Circulars, 1873, for more numerals or badges than can be used up by the 31st March, 1877.

Cl. 54.—Clothing at Brigade Depôts.

1. Non-commissioned officers on the staff of brigade depôts will wear the uniform of the home battalion.

2. Men returning from abroad who join a brigade depôt for duty will, at the next issue of clothing, receive garments of the home battalion pattern.

3. Recruits raised at or sent to the head quarters of sub-districts will be clothed in accordance with the following instructions:—

a. Facings of the home battalion pattern will be issued to recruits; but, on being ordered to join the battalion abroad, their facings will, if necessary, be changed. Applications, in time to admit of this service being carried out prior to embarkation, will be made to the Director of Clothing.

b. Badges for Glengarry caps and numerals for shoulder straps (where worn) of the pattern in use by the home battalion will be issued, but when recruits are drafted to a different battalion, these articles will be taken into store and re-issued to other recruits.

c. Numerals for shoulder straps will not be supplied to the Rifle Depôt, but the garments will be completed at the battalion to which the recruits are posted.

d. Special collar badges will not be provided, but the ordinary crowns will be worn, and taken away by drafts, unless the draft be sent to a regiment wearing a special badge, in which case the crowns will be taken into store and re-issued to other recruits. In such brigade depôts, however, as are composed of detachments of the first and second battalions of the same regiment, special badges, if worn by such regiment, may be provided and taken away on the recruits being posted to either of the battalions.

e. Great coats and leggings will be issued on the usual conditions.

f. For the first three or four months the only headdress which will be worn by recruits will be the Glengarry cap.

4. Commanding officers will take care that they always have in possession a sufficient number of suits of clothing in assorted sizes to admit of the recruits being easily fitted and promptly clothed. (See paragraph 2, Clause 106, Army Circulars, 1873.)

5. Men joining the battalion at home will take their full-dress caps with them, but those going to the battalion abroad will leave them behind.

Cl. 55.—Packing Cases.

1. Officers commanding regiments, corps, or battalions at stations at which there are Garrison Needlewomen's Associations may, when applied to, hand over to the secretary any empty cases, cases, or wrappers in their possession which may be required by any such association.

2. A formal receipt need not be taken for the articles, but the usual vouchers will be forwarded to the storekeeper of the Army Clothing Department, Pimlico, charging that officer with the articles, and stating distinctly on the voucher that they had been forwarded through such an association.

3. On the delivery of the articles to the storekeeper he will give the usual receipt.

ARMY MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.Cl. 56.—Medical Examination of Recruits.

A considerable number of soldiers having recently been discharged from the Army on account of medical disability, after serving only a short time, the attention of medical officers is directed to the necessity for their exercising great caution in the examination of recruits, both as to their physical condition and their mental capacity.

G.O. 22.—Staff College.

In reference to G. O. 71 of 1875, notifying the result of the last examination for admission to the Staff College, it has been discovered that, by a clerical error on the part of one of the examiners, Captain H. I. E. Ford, Royal Artillery, was not credited with 90 marks which he had gained, and that his position on the list of successful candidates was actually second, with an aggregate of 2439 marks, instead of third, with 2349 marks.

G.O. 23.—Royal Military College.

Paragraph 18 of the "Regulations for the Government of the Royal Military College" which accompanied G. O. 20 of 1875, is to be altered as follows:—

"Sub Lieutenants and Students will salute the Governor, the Officers, and the Professors and Instructors on all occasions, whether in or out of uniform."

G.O. 24.—Advanced Class, Royal Artillery.

The following list, showing the result of the examination of officers for admission to the advanced class, is published for general information.

* This officer having qualified in all the obligatory subjects of the examination, has been admitted to the class as a special case, although he did not gain the aggregate of 500 marks.

G.O. 25.—Discharges.

Discharge boards must, when necessary, correct the notice on the back of the present parchment certificate of discharge, which is, for some cases, contrary to the provisions of Clause 109, Army Circulars, 1875.
